I have been working as a Focus Puller for almost 10 years now. I consider myself fortunate to have begun my assisting career when shooting 35mm and 16mm was still very much standard, as it is with a strict film discipline that I approach every job.

Creative and Technical ability goes hand in hand as a Focus Puller and I believe it is knowing how to apply the correct measure of each to the job at hand that makes an Assistant truly stand out.

From the small independent doc to big budget commercials and features, I have shot all over the world in all manners of locations and conditions. I relish the challenge and appreciate the opportunities working in this industry bring to me.
